COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Samuel Timberlake has been appointed Plumbing Inspector and Code Enforcement Officer. Applications for plumbing permits are to be obtained at the Town Office. Contact with Mr. Timberlake will be made through the office.

The State has notified us there is a moratorium on building construction within 250 feet of designated waterways until the town enacts a Shoreline Zoning Ordinance. The Planning Board is working on mapping the waterways to determine where the zones will be located. As soon as they complete the map a hearing must be called to explain the proposed ordinance, after that there will be a town meeting to see if the town will adopt the proposal. The Planning Board is going to present the State minimum guidelines to the town for adoption. If these are not accepted the present situation of no building along the waterways must continue.

Until further notice resident hunting and fishing licenses must be obtained at the Town Office.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY RECEIVES DESK USED AS POST OFFICE BY DR. MASON

From 1815 until he went to Washington in 1833 to serve in the House of Representatives, Moses Mason was postmaster in Bethel. His Post Office was a high wooden desk with four drawers and with two pairs of slanting tops, each hinged to a center partition, or "ridgepole". Fitted with pigeonholes and other compartments, it is ingenious and was no doubt adequately efficient for carrying on the work of the postal service in a less complex era. It now stands in the entrance to the Moses Mason House, a gift of Dr. John Young.

A large double-walled tankard—probably used as a water pitcher—made between 1854 and 1865 and in the Mason family from that time until bought by Beatrice Conrad in 1964, has been presented to the House by Mrs. Conrad.

James Lowe has recently completed two excellent rubbings of the face of the gravestones of Moses Mason and his wife, Agnes Straw Mason at their burial places in Woodlawn Cemetery. The rubbings have been mounted under glass and are installed in the entrance to the Moses Mason House.

S. A. D. 44 BOARD HOLDS REGULAR MEETING

The board of directors of M. S. A. D. 44 met in regular session at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week.

The board established the requirement of receiving a passing grade in three credit bearing courses as a prerequisite for participation in extra-curricular activities at Telstar Regional High School.

It was the decision of the board to approve the smoking area privilege at Telstar through the 1974-75 school year.

The directors accepted the high bids submitted for the 1959 6-cylinder Ford pick-up and a 25 kilowatt, 3-phase, 240 volt, AC generator. Harry Swan Sr., of Locke Mills submitted a bid of $26 for the truck, and L. E. Smith (d/b/a Windham Electric) submitted a bid of $510 for the generator.

Don Chretien of Bethel was confirmed as the contractor to build an addition to the Sewage Disposal Plant at Telstar. Construction of the project is currently underway. Cost of the addition will be $2,234.86. The board confirmed an amount of $3,957.66 to furnish and equip a laboratory at the Sewage Disposal Plant.

It was voted to delay one year the resurfacing of walkways, roads and teacher parking areas at Telstar. The matter will receive consideration when the budget for the 1976 fiscal year is formulated.

The directors confirmed agreements reached with the following non-certified personnel of S. A. D. 44: 36-40 week employees—custodians, bus drivers, hot lunch workers; 52 week employees—custodians and bus drivers.

The directors voted to employ Arthur Whitten of Andover as bus driver/custodian at Telstar. Frank Landry of Bethel was approved as a custodian (night shift) at Telstar.

Approved as part-time bus drivers were Byron Lapham and Burnham Rice.

The board approved the nomination of Mrs. Jane (Hersey) Chandler of Rumford Center to fill a vacancy in the Telstar Home Economics Department, created by the leave of absence of Mrs. Venessa Arsenault for one year. Mrs. Chandler is a graduate of Stephens High School, Rumford, and received her B. S. degree from Cornell University in 1972. She attended summer school at the University of Maine-Orono this summer. Mrs. Chandler has two years of teaching experience at Gates-Chili High School, Rochester, N. Y.

John Ford of Unity describes one situation which could have been avoided:

"I have had few small animals picked up this spring, as compared to previous years. Some people, however, still insist on taking them."

"A Unity resident recently picked up a small coon and kept the animal for a couple of weeks. The coon finally bit the man on the hand, then turned on the family dog. A few hours later the coon died."

The Dept. of Health and Welfare Laboratory in Augusta determined that the animal had died of rabies. The unfortunate man who adopted this coon is now undergoing the painful series of shots — nine of which must be taken in the belly. I wonder if it's really worth it."

The dangers of adopting wildlife are not limited to the "foster-parents." Many times, baby animals who appear to be in trouble are actually being watched from nearby by a frightened parent who fled when humans approached. So, what may seem to you to be a humane act may actually be "killing with kindness."

Another thing to remember — once you take a wild animal into your home, that animal probably cannot successfully return to the wild. Its parents and peers will frequently not accept its return, and the animal has grown incapable of tending for itself.

Leave wild animals alone, and tell other well-meaning people to swallow their sympathy. Nature knows how to take care of its own.

VAIL FAMILY REUNION

The descendants of David and Alice Shields Vail held their annual family reunion at the Bear River Grange Hall in Newry on Sunday, August 4. In spite of the heavy rain there were 102 members and guests in attendance.

The meeting was opened with the recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance to our flag, and the group singing of the "Vail Song" which had just recently been composed by one of the members, Mrs. James (Phyllis) Cote of Rumford, the winner in a song contest conducted during the past year.

The highlight of the reunion was the raffling of an afghan and quilts. Two twin size hand-drawn quilts and a full size patchwork quilt had been handmade and donated by the eldest member, Thomas Fitzmaurice Vail. The lucky winner of the twin size quilts was Francis Vail Sr., of East Stoneham, while Martha Littlefield, of Lakewood, Colo., was the lucky winner of the patchwork quilt. Martha was not present, as she and her husband, Neal, are now receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby girl, Valerie Mayann. Her grandfather, Francis Vail Sr., had just returned from a visit with the new parents, and he held the winning ticket for Martha.

The holder of the winning ticket for the afghan, which had been crocheted and donated by Mrs. Alice Vail of Needham, Mass., was Harold Jarvis of Rumford.

In addition to the quilts and afghan, a cash door prize was won by Earl Vail of Needham, Mass., which he donated to the Reunion's general fund.

Officers elected for the following year were: Francis Vail Sr., Pres.; William Vail Sr., Vice Pres.; Merle Beausoleil, Secretary-Treasurer.

Those attending the reunion were: Richard and Sally Ann Anness; Charlotte, Pauline and Merle Beausoleil; Albert Sr., Albert Jr., Brenda, Mary and Sadie Berardinelli; Virgil and Lois Blaisdell; Phillip Bourque; Maude Brown; Danny, Kit and Paula Campbell; Julie Chiasson; Andrew Clarke; Ernest, Joyce, Carol and Karen Clifford; Martin and Addie Colby; Janice Coter; Kathy Curtis; Donna DeFazio; Walter, Marilyn, Sharon, Judy and Lori Enman; Elsie and Mickey Flanders; Dennis Foley; Doris, Dolores, Elizabeth and Alison Jacob; Harold and Edith Jarvis; David and Brenda Jarvis; Charles, Sally, Kelly and Sally Kelly; Nancy, Laurie, Jodey, Anita, Bruce, David Kim-

If you're so rich, why aren't you smart?

So you're making a good salary. But you're not saving any of it. Instead, you want to go after the "big deal" that's going to make you a cool million. Maybe.

What happens if your big scheme goes sour? You've still got to get through the future. And, let's face it. Nobody can afford to take tomorrow for granted.

So maybe you'd better join the Payroll Savings Plan now. Just sign up at work. An amount you specify will be set aside from your paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

That way, you can still afford to take a few financial risks, if that's your bag. But you'll always have a solid cash reserve to live back on. And that's being smart.

Now if you'd only get informed when told to majority of 5 years (1976 the first year). Bonds are replaced if lost, stolen or destroyed. When needed, they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

A SOLUTION TO BETHEL'S MEDICAL NEEDS

by Wall Cherry

This is the first of a short series of comments on the condition of medical coverage in Bethel and surrounding communities, and what we can do about it. Any opinions offered are my own, and mine alone.

It is perhaps futile to look any longer, at this time, for a young and vigorous physician to settle here to practice. Current available medical service, particularly in a crisis, is spotty and unreliable. Two or three young and able doctors would fill the bill, but there is little likelihood of that, because there are thousands of communities like ours in the country, many without any medical service available, and many more remote than we, needing doctors more than we do.

It seems that if we are to gain another doctor at this time, he would more likely be the older variety, coming to semi-retire and to limit his practice to a few hours a week. It is rumored that such a person has been considering Bethel. He will be welcome, of course, and the situation a little better, but round-the-clock coverage would still not be guaranteed.

What is needed, is a family health care center, and what you may have read about the Bucksport experiment in last Sunday's paper, doesn't alter the fact at all. Medicare concerns only a small fraction of our people. What is more, there will likely be changes in the ruling before long, because there simply are not enough doctors to go around.

NORTH PARIS

— Evelyn Barrett, Corres. —

Saturday afternoon we were blessed with a thundershower and lots of rain which was very much needed. It washed out quite a bit on the road sides at the new bridge, and it rained all night.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Thompson and family, Fryeburg, called at John O'Hearon's Saturday afternoon.

Doris Lawrence and Stevie Millett arrived home from New Brunswick, Canada, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barrett were at Dr. Rex Martin's, Bethel, for Joe's monthly visit, and found the doctor's building all painted up, inside and outside. It looked very nice. Evelyn Barrett made another trip Thursday with the flu bug.

Aug. 19 saw the final phase at the bridge. "Susi" and a new crew from Pittsfield with six truck-loads of "hot top" from R. K. Brown, Watford, and some of his crew and equipment put the hot top on from the maple tree at the corner of Barrett's house almost to Owen Bonney's house. "Susi's" crew did a general clean-up from the roadsides and moved the trailer office back to Pittsfield or some new place. We shall surely miss seeing the trucks and men come and go, also the men from the Maine State Highway Dept. of Transportation. A very good job by all. It makes the rest of the road look old fashioned. There's no excuse now for not dusting. With the dirt road and lots of traffic we could have sprung ten times a day. Now for house cleaning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson and Peter have moved from the Johnson house and are with the O'Hearon's at present. He went to work at the tannery, South Paris, on Aug. 19, and rides with Herbert Stevens.

Mildred Hazelton and Pauline Perham went to Old Orchard for a dip in the ocean Thursday and on the way home got lost in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hearon were at Brunswick Aug. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kalinowski of "Big Rock" called on the Barretts Friday evening. Callers during the week were Doris Lawrence, Lucius Newton, Sandra, Jeff, and Jim Coffin.

Mildred Hazelton had 16 aluminum storm windows installed Sunday.

AUDITIONS FOR "GUYS & DOLLS" TO BE HELD IN RUMFORD

Auditioning for the R.A.A.P.A. production of "Guys and Dolls" will take place on Monday, Aug. 26, and Tuesday, Aug. 27, from 5 p. m. to 9 p. m. at the R. A. P. A. Hall on Lowell Street, Rumford. Auditions will be for chorus, speakers, and dancers from the adult population of the surrounding area; children who may be needed will be called at a later date and chosen from those whose parents are members of the production.

This musical, based on Damon Runyon characterizations, includes a variety of roles for men and women. The cross-section of New York City humanity focuses on the crap shooters with the colorful names of Harry the Horse, Benny Southstreet, Angle the Ox, and Liver Lips Louie. These characters contrast with the militaristic Gen. Matilda B. Cartwright of the Salvation Army and Calvin, Agatha, and Martha of the Mission Band. Lieutenant Brannigan and his policemen represent other perspectives of New York, along with tourists, "commen", street-walkers, "high society" and nightclub entertainers.

Women who are auditioning for the nightclub dancers may wear shorts or bathing suits. All men and women are requested to bring a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Scripts of the musical are on 3-day loan at the Rumford Public Library. On Thursday and Friday, Aug. 22 and 23, anyone interested in familiarizing themselves with the music for auditions, may come to the R. A. P. A. Hall from 7-8 p. m.

MEMORIAL DEDICATED AT KIMBALLS' SIXTH REUNION

Nearly 300 Kimball descendants of Richard Kimball of Ipswich, Mass. (1837-1970) gathered in Ipswich for the week end of August 18, and paid honor to their ancestor in common, by dedicating a boulder mounted bronze plaque to his memory in the Old High Street Burying Ground. Taking part in the dedicatory service at 11 a. m. Sunday were past president of the Kimball Family Association, Herbert E. Kimball, Rochester, N. H., who prepared the service, current president Frank Viell Kimball, Harnony, R. I., immediate past president John Hancock Kimball, Lynnfield, Mass., and following their remarks, the veil was removed from the Memorial by newly elected president, Gordon S. Kimball, Wolfeboro, Falls, N. H., and founder Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Carter, West Bethel, Maine.

17 states and Ontario, Canada, were represented at this sixth reunion of the Association founded in 1908 by the late Mrs. Gladys Kimball Chapman, Harrison, and her two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Kimball Watkins, Manchester, N. H., and Mrs. Myra Kimball Weeman, also of Manchester, and Mrs. Elizabeth Mason Carter, whose idea it originally was, and who has been the active founder. Mrs. Carter's history of the first five years of the Association, Incorporated in 1972, was on sale at the reunion, and can be obtained by any members desiring it, and working her at Box 44, West Bethel, Maine 04286.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Corres. —

Our hike carried us through wonderful rolling country where the land was like great swells that lifted us up and tobogganed us down into a trough beyond.

The old wood road flanked with trees and ferns gave me a sense of expectancy which goes with me at these times when nothing unusual happens. Very small things are enough to give that start of pleasure: a partridge rose beyond the wall, small birds flew in and out of the thickets along the paths, a band of color, beaded by scarlet berries and cherries were on bushes.

We crossed the brooks, low now, but seeking their way in endless wandering.

Now and then the red of the woodbine or some single maple stood out against the cold green pines especially now when very few trees are changed; a remarkable object on the landscape.

Overcast with its gray granite seemed as usual; painted by the rains and brushed by the winds over many years.

Chipmunks along the walls were running about or sitting upright, looking very cunning. The black and white stripes on their sides, curve as they sit and are very conspicuous and pretty. The hawks must get many of these inexperienced little creatures.

At times we lingered beneath the trees to listen to the sounds, then moved into the hills, blanketed with green and dark coniferous forestry.

We came to where a white house crouched before us, with a car in the yard which told us the owners had arrived. No doubt they were enjoying the peace and quiet after their world travels.

As they look out to the Maine mountains they may seem insignificant compared to the Alps and Rockies but to those who are used to them they have much to offer: sometimes black and brooding, sometimes near as if you could reach out and touch them, again distant and withdrawn, hazy or bright, gay with their autumn shawls. In all their changes I love them.

We went as far as the old cemetery high on Patch Mountain where many generations sleep. The once fertile farms cleared and tilled by those who rest here are no more.

The cellar holes and decrepit remains of orchards once planted in hope are now a picture of man's defeat.

On our way out how truly glorious seemed the landscape, mountains, valleys meadow, brooks, and the wide blue sky bending over all.

Across the openings were the lavender blooms of the fire weeds; how swiftly it draws its bloom over the forest scars.

In the sunny glades the locust sped on crackling wings while in boggy dips frogs hopped out into the grass or hid beneath the waters.

So we returned and my thoughts were ever with Ruth and my last trip there with her for she likes as I do a country road where tree-shadows gently sit, where flowers blue and gold bordered with lace, fit for a queen, nestle among the green. May she soon be out and able to join me where and when autumn's colors ride the hills.

Annie Mills, Shapleigh, spent the week end with her sister, Colista Morgan; and they attended the house-warming for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Curtis in West Paris as did Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Felton, Kathy Curtis and Tonda Mills.
